

DAY 2: WEDNESDAY 06 APRIL 2022, 14:00-16:00 CEST

From climate change data to action - the barriers and opportunities of creating sustainable climate change data ecosystems

- 5' Introduction to day 2 and recap of day 1
François Fonteneau, Deputy Head, PARIS21 Secretariat
- 10' Opening remarks
Stefan Schweinfest, Director, United Nations Statistics Division
- 30' #RealityCheck country presentations: From climate data to evidence-informed action - what is the reality at the country level?
Iván Ojeda, Director-General, National Institute of Statistics of Paraguay
Tarik Ogbamichael, Senior Advisor, Statistics Norway, Ria Arinda, Statistician, BPS/Statistics Indonesia, Kristine Grimsrud, Senior Researcher, Statistics Norway
- 15' Audience Q&A
- 40' Panel discussion: The levers of change - what does it take to realise the value of climate change data ecosystems?
Moderated by Cathy Krüger and Philippe Gafishi, PARIS21 Secretariat
Johannes Friedrich - Director of Climate Data, World Resources Institute
Fernanda Alcobé - Researcher, The International Institute for Environment and Development
Lavorne Williams - Chief Statistician, Statistical Office of Saint Vincent & the Grenadines
Gabriel Quiros Romero - Deputy Director, Statistics Department IMF
Ian Townsend – Deputy Director for Environment, UK Office for National Statistics
- 15' Audience Q&A
- 5' Closing remarks
Johannes Jütting, Executive Head, PARIS21 Secretariat

www.paris21.org

@ContactPARIS21.org

<https://www.linkedin.com/company/paris21>

PARIS
21!